Thurſday, May 25 1704

From the Paris Gazette, dated May 24.

Madrid, May 12.

THE King ſet out from Plaſencia the 1ſt of this Month, and lay that Night at Montehermoſo: the 2d he went to Coria, of which Town the Duke of Alva is Lord: The Biſhop of Coria after he had paid his Reſpects to his Majeſty, made him a Preſent of 2000 Piſtoles, and of 1000 Fanegas of Wheat, together with Refreſhments of all ſorts carry'd by 40 Mules. The 3d the King went to Moraleja: The 4th to Zarza, and found rhe Regiment of Berry and others, of Foot, encamp'd near that Town; which lying not far from Salvaterra, he immediately mounted on Horſeback, and being accompanied by his own Regiment and ſome Archers and Carabineers of his Guards, went to take a view of that Place, and rode within Muſquet-ſhot of it: In the Evening as he return'd he found 400 Men, conſiſting of Burghers of Coria and Gentlemen of the neighbouring Country, drawn up on both ſides the Road, and was conducted by them into Coria with great Acclamations. The 5th he went to the Camp at Alcantara, where he was receiv'd with a general Salvo of all the Artillery and ſmall Arms. The 6th ſome heavy Cannon, and 2 Mortars, with Waggons loaded with Ammunition, were ſent towards Salvaterra.

Paris, May 24. A Courier that left the Frontier of Portugal the 8th Inſtant, has brought the following News. The King of Spain having caus'd Salvaterra to be inveſted the 7th by the Count of Aguilar and the Marqueſs de Thoy; the Duke of Berwick advanc'd thither the 8th with other Troops to the Number of 20 Battallions and 20 Squadrons, and caus'd the Governour to be ſummon'd, who ſurrendred the ſame Day at Diſcretion, with his Garriſon conſiſting of 10 Companies. The 9th the Duke of Berwick was to go and attack Segura, another Frontier Place, which 'twas ſuppos'd would make no better Reſiſtance than Salvaterra. Prince Tſerclaes de Tilly march'd from Badajoz the 5th with 12 Battallions and 30 Squadrons, and the ſame Day advanc'd to Albuquerque, the 6th to Codeceira, and the 7th he entred Portugal, and encamp'd in a plentiful Country between Aronches and Portalegre. Three other Bodies of Troops enter'd at the ſame time into different Parts of Portugal. The 7th the Marqueſs of Villadarias with 1500 Foot, 1500 Horſe, and 4000 of the Militia, enter'd the Territory of Serpa and Moura, ſituate on the Left of the Guadiana: The Marqueſs of Joffreville, march'd from Ciudad Rodrigo, and entred by the way of Almeida; and was to joyn the Army commanded by the King of Spain the 9th: The Duke of Hijar was order'd to enter Portugal on the 7th likewiſe, from the Kingdom of Galicia with 1000 Foot, 500 Horſe, and 4000 of the Militia. The Enemies had drawn no Troops together yet into the Field, having been oblig'd to employ moſt of their Forces in garriſoning Places. Several Deſerters were come over from them.

Strasburg, May 14. The Troops that are in theſe Parts have been continually in Motion for ſeveral Days paſt. Part of the Artillery which was ſent towards Fort Louis, return'd hither the 9th. Yet we are getting ready ſeveral Pieces of heavy Cannon and Mortars; and Bullets, Bombs, 20000 Grenadoes, and a great Quantity of Ammunitions, are drawn out of our Arſenal; and beſides 45 Boats which are ſent loaded on Waggons towards Landau, 30 more are loading, and will ſpeedily be ſent after them. 'Tis now taken for granted that the Marſhal de Tallard will endeavour to paſs through the Black Forreſt to carry Succours to the Elector of Bavaria, of whom and of the Marſhal de Marſin 'tis advis'd, that the 4th they drew together an Army of 22000 Men at Ulm; and were advanced to Riedlingen the 8th in their way towards the Head of the Danube. We are further inform'd, that 6 or 7000 Bavarians that drew together between Ingolſtad and Ratisbonne, are marched to Hemmau and are Encamp'd there: And that the Count de Arco, Field-Marſhal-General of the Elector of Bavaria's Forces, is advanced towards Donawert with 15000 Men which he drew together near the Mouth of the Lech; in Order to cover the Territories of his Electoral Higneſs.

Paris, May 24. Divers Couriers come from Alſatia have brought Advice, that the 12th. Inſtant the Marſhal de Tallard left Strasburg, and paſs'd the Rhine the 13th. at Briſac; that all the Troops paſs'd that River likewiſe over the Bridges at Rheinau, Briſac, and Hunninghen: the 14th the Marſhal Encamped near Friburg. He had Intelligence that the Elector of Bavaria and the Marſhal de Marcin, would arrive with their Army the 16th at Doneſchingen, where the Danube takes its Riſe, and that Count Thungen at their approach had abandon'd the Defence of the Paſſages, and retir'd to Rotweiler. The ſame day (the 14th.) the Marſhal de Tallard order'd a way to be open'd on the Right, to avoid the Cannon of Friburg, and detach'd the Sieur Zurlauben with a Body of between 7 and 8000 Men, to march through the Valley of St. Peter, and poſſeſs himſelf of the Hills of Torner and Hollegraben: which he executed the 15th without any Oppoſition. The Army follow'd him, and we have ſince had Advice, that the Marſhal de Tallard having left the Count de Coignies with the Army he Commands to guard the Paſſage on the ſide of Friburg, arriv'd the 17th in the Camp of the Elector of Bavaria, and that all the Troops, Artillery, Proviſions, Baggage, and Money, would arive there likewiſe the 18th and 20th.

They write from Thoulon the 11th, that they had Advice there, that the Sieur d' Aire, Commander of the Conſtant, had taken off Cape de Gara on the Coaſt of Granada, a Ship coming from Smirna, richly Laden, carrying 20 Guns.

The Sieur de St. Pierre, Ayde de Camp to the Marſhal de Villars, arriv'd the 17th at Marli, bringing a Letter, in which the Marſhal acquaints the King, that the Rebels of Languedoc had Submitted to his Majeſty's Mercy, and ſent him their Submiſſion Sign'd by their chief Leader.

The Liquor of Azam, being the most present Remedy ever yet made use of for the Stone and Gravel, stoppage of Urine, and all Heats and Scaldings therof, bringing away the Tartarous Matte, from the Kidneys and Bladder, a most noble Medicine both for prevention and cure; shewind its Effects visibly in the Urinal in a few days using it. It is only to be had at John's Coffee house in Sweetings-Alley near the Royal Exchange, Sealed up in Bottles with Directions, at 2 s. 6 d. per Bottle.

These are to certifie whom it may concern, That I John Major Master of the William and Mary Pink, a Trader between Newcastle and London, having for several Years been very much afflicted with the Gravel in the Kidneys and stoppage of Urine, did about a Month since take a Powder sold by Mr. Rogers at the Sun against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street for curing the Gravel, which had so good an Effect upon me, that tho' when I took it I had a great stoppage of Urine, it immediately caused me to make Water plentifully; and having a great Pain in my Back the next day, I took it a second time, and it not only gave me ease presently, but caused me to void a great quantity of Gravel; so that I look upon it to be the best Remedy in the World for that Distemper, and this Certificate I do (in Justice to the Author of so excellent a Medicine, as well as for the Benefit of the Publick) give under my Hand the 28th of April 1704. John Major.

This Person is to be heard of at Mr. Tennants a Distiller at King Edward's Stairs at Wapping.

A most curious Pulvil for the Teeth and Gums, of a very odoriferous Scent, it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory tho' never so black and deformed, fastens them when loose, keeping them sound and free from decaying; It preserves the Gums from the Scurvy, and by the Fragrancy of its Odour renders the Breath agreeable fine and Sweet tho' never so strong and stinking, at 1 s. the Box. Also Lip Salve for Ladies, &c. of a charming and delightful Scent, which in 3 or 4 hours heals and makes them delicately soft and smooth tho' never so rough and chop'd, giving them a becoming rubricund colour, at 1 s. the Box. Is sold only at Mr. Allnutt's a Glover the corner of Pope's Head-Alley over against the Royal Exchange, with printed Directions for both.
